ADDITIONAL PROCEEDINGS

Govt's motion for reconsideration of the release Order -GRANTED. Pursuant to the add'l. evidence proffered by the govt. which was not known by counsel/Court at the time of the orig. detention hrg., combined with the info. provided by Pret. Svcs. in their report & the nature of the instant offense, the Court does not have enough confidence on the deft. - if released from custody, the Court believes that the deft. will not be able to control himself. The Court is deeply concerned about the mental instability and emotional imbalance of the deft. The Court ordered the deft. detained as a danger to the community. If there's any request for this Court to revisit the matter of detention later, the govt's atty. must provide the Court with copies of images of the use of manors (infants & toddlers) in sexually explicit conduct allegedly transported/produced/possessed by the deft.
